

II Workshop

In The Same Boat: Shipbuilding and ship repair workers: a global labour history (1950-2010)”

International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam

22-26 May 2013

Program

May 22 (Wednesday)

Opening: IISH/Re-work/ Frits Loomeijer

Session 1 - 10:30h as 12:30h

Work, Workers and labour conflicts in the shipyard Bazán/Navantia, 1950-2010

José Gómez Alén (Fundación de Investigaciones Marxistas- Madrid)

Working Outside the Box: Shipbuilding, Shipbreaking, and Containerization in the United States, 1950-2000.

Robin Muhammad (Ohio University – USA)

Shipbuilding and ship repairs in Thailand during neoliberalism transition

Nicola Mocci (University of Cagliari –Thailand)

Lunch time (at IISH) - 12:30 to 13:30

Session 2 - 13:30h to 15:30h

The Situation of the "Bremer Vulkan" in the 1980s: an Example of the West German Shipbuilding Industry in the Second Half of the 20th Century.

Johanna Wolf (University of Leipzig)

The Development and Re-organization of Industrial Structures of the shipbuilding in Postwar Japan: A General Outline

Takeshi Haragucho (Kobe University - Japan)

Evolution and development of Shipbuilding Industry in Maharashtra (India) from 1970s: Employer, Employee and Production perspective"

S.M. Fahimuddin Pasha (Assistant Manager in Computer Society of India - India)

Coffee Break - 15:30 to 15:45

Session 3 - 15:45 to 17:45

The evolution of labor relations in Korean shipbuilding industry: A case study on the Hanjin Heavy Industries, 1950-2010

Wonchul Shin (Associate Professor Pusan National University Busan – South Korea)

An Overview of Labour in the British Shipbuilding and Ship repairing Industries in the Twentieth Century'

Hugh Murphy (Visiting Reader in Maritime History, National Maritime Museum, Greenwich – Great Britain)

From shipyard Caneco to shipyard Rio Nave: two companies, one yard

Elina da Fonte Pessanha and Luísa Barbosa Pereira (Federal University of Brazil – Brazil)

Coffee Break - 17:45 to 18:00

Comments by Jan Lucassen 18:00 to 19:00

May 23 (Thursday)

Session 4 - 9:00 to 11:30

From boom to bust: Kockums 1950-1987

Tobias Karlsson (Lund University - Sweden )

Shipbuilding labour in Fincantieri

Valter Zanin (University of Padova - Italy)

Productive and organizational challenges of a State-owned enterprise. The case of Argentinean Shipyard Río Santiago

Juliana Frassa (University of La Plata – Argentine)

Forced Silence, Full Scale Fight, and Negotiated Peace: The Transition of Industrial Relations at the Hyundai Shipyard, 1972~2012

Jun Kim - National Assembly Research Service, Korea

Coffee Break - 11:30 to 11:45

Session 5 - 11:45h to 13:45h

The Norwegian shipbuilding industry 1950 – 2010: production systems, rationalization and labour relations

Hans-Jakob Ågotnes, Jan Heiret (University of Bergen-Norway)

Argentina shipbuilding industry: the State as problem and solution

Cintia Russo (Nacional University of Quilmes – Argentine)

Sestri Ponente shipyard. Workers, production and labour relations from 1950 until 2010

Giulia Strippoli, Davide Tabor, Luciano Villani (Italy)

Lunch time (at IISH) - 14:00 to 14:45

Session 6 – 14:45 to 6:45

Labour Force in Lisnave, Portugal: an overview

Raquel Varela (IHC-Nova University of Lisbon / IISH)

Working in the Lenin Shipyard: Shipbuilding Industry in the People's Republic of Poland in the 1970s and 1980s

Sara Graber (Centre for Contemporary History Potsdam - ZZP)

Shipowners and Politicians: Capital Accumulation and Labour Regime at the Desan Shipyard, Istanbul, Turkey (1991-2013)

Asli Odman (Istanbul Health and Safety Labor Watch – Turkey)

From reparations to cruise ships. Productional changes and labour relations in the Turku shipyard, 1950-2010

Kari Teräs (University of Tampere - Finland )

Coffee Break - 17:00 to 17:15

Comments by Matthias Middell 17:15 to 18:30

May 24 (Friday)

Session 7 - 9:00 to 11:00

French Saint-Nazaire's shipyards from struggles of glorious postwar years to challenges of globalization age (1950-2010)

Eric Kocher-Marboeuf

The Russian case - first results of an investigation

Matthias Middell - (CAS-University of Leipzig)

Shipbuilding industry in Portugal: Labour relations in Mitrena shipyard (1974-1995)

Jorge Fontes (IHC- Nova University of Lisbon)

Coffee Break - 11:00 to 11:15

Session 8 - 11:15 to 13:15

Shipbuilding labour in China

Paula Nabuco (Fluminense Federal University – Brazil)

Against market rules. A shipyard nobody wanted (except workers)

Ruben Vega Garcia (University of Oviedo – Spain)

“Cockatoo Island, Australia – industry, labour and protest culture”

Lisa Milner (Southern Cross University – Australia)

Lunch time – 13:15 to 14:00

Debates – 14:00 to 17:00

1- Debate on outlines of the second stage of the project: In the Same Boat? Shipbuilding and ship repair workers: a global labour history (1950-2010)

2- Define teams

Comments: Marcel Van der Linden

Coffee Break – 17:00 to 17:15

Workshop closure by Raquel Varela 17:15 to 18:30

Dinner in Amsterdam (offered by the IISH)

May 25 (Saturday)

10:00 - Excursion

6:00 - Drink at Boulevard Café <http://www.boulevardcafe.nl>